

NATIONAL WOMEN'S REGISTER WEST BRIDGFORD GROUP

Programme
September 2008 – February 2009

Wednesday 17 September 'Is the Past our Future?' – National Conference Report & Discussion

Come along and help us to drink 'the last of the summer wine' and consider topics as diverse as: 'Staying Younger Longer' and 'Nanotechnology: what is it and what can we achieve?' Brief reports by Pauline Young and Penny Reid.

Host: Susan

Tuesday 30 September 'The Law is an Ass – or Is It?'

A local magistrate tells us something of the work of the Magistrates Court and why things aren't always as cut and dried as they appear to us.

Host: Jenny

Thursday 9 October The Colour Blue and the Number Two

Think laterally and bring along any thoughts, quotes, information, memories or objects which relate to the colour blue. In a similar way, help us to explore the number two – we may even be treated to a performance or rendition!

Host: Linda

Monday 20 October 'Dishing the Dirty Dosh – Your Solicitor as State Informer'

Do you know what a legal compliance director does? No, neither did we. So John Sarginson is coming along tonight to throw some light on this intriguing title.

Host: Claire

Wednesday 12 November National Telephone Treasure Trail

Bring those encyclopaedias and reference books along with honed minds and quick fingers so we can pit our wits against the other groups in the annual national telephone treasure trail.

Host: Pat

Tuesday 25 November Headliners

Bring along a headline or picture from the news to talk about – could be something in the current news, something funny, something ironic, something that annoys you – whatever takes your fancy.

Host: Liz

Thursday 11 December An Old Fashioned Christmas Party

Christmas starts here with our annual mulled wine, mince pies and parlour games bash.

Host: Joy

Wednesday 7 January 09 'Nuts, Sluts and Perverts'

A talk by Philip Bean about prostitution, drug addiction and other related social problems.

Host: Jackie

2009

Saturday 17 January 09 A Pantomime Party

Join us for an evening of fun and frivolity AND you do want to dress up? Oh no you don't! Oh yes you do! – fancy dress optional. More details nearer the time.

Venue: Gamston Village Hall

Monday 2 February      *A Taste of Thailand

Join us for a themed evening exploring the country of Thailand.

Host: Linda B

Thursday 19 February      *The Mountains of Norway

An illustrated slide talk by Ted Grey exploring Norway: its scenery, flora and fauna, and people (including the Lapps) from the southern fields to the Arctic. Ted is Secretary of the Young Explorers Trust,

Host: Sue
