

National Women's Register
Registered charity No 295198

Whitstable Branch: Programme March to September 2009.

Please note our book for discussion in September is actually a play 'Medea.' by Euripides.

19th March

Sian, Liz's daughter has kindly agreed to talk to us about Action Aid.
At Liz's

2nd April

Rivers. Interpret this as you wish. Bridges, cities, wildlife – any aspect you like.
At Pat L's.

16th April

Advertising. We could look at the ethics of advertising, at past advertising campaigns, jingles, slogans and maybe devise one for a new product.
At Yvonne's.

7th May

Childhood in the UK – a sorry state. Mary has offered to summarise this latest research document. What do we think?
At Celia's.

21st May

Thailand. Using the information provided by the National Office we will learn more about its culture, cuisine, language, geography and history. Patsy will also tell us about her holiday there.
At Tricia's.

4th June

Painting. Choose a painting that you love or hate giving the reasons for your choice. Don't forget to bring a copy of it!
At Christine's.

18th June

Numbers. Interpret this as you like – mathematically, biblically, historically, etc – you choose.
At Denny's.

2nd July

Our annual walk. No decision as to where yet but if you have any ideas.....Partners welcome.

16th July

Planning meeting. Please bring along your ideas for future meetings. If you cannot attend, e-mail or phone Celia with your suggestions.
At Patsy's

SATURDAY 8th August

Barbeque at Pat's. Partners welcome.

3rd September

Our book discussion. 'Medea' by Euripides – actually a play!
At Mary's