

NWR Falkirk Winter/Spring Programme 2007

- 10th January Mountains. They feature in our landscapes, literary and scientific worlds, and in our imaginations. Tell us about some aspect of them that appeals to you, or about one mountain in particular. At Alison's
- 17th January Charles Rennie Mackintosh. Exploring aspects of this famous designer's life and works. At Val's
- 24th January 5 things you can't do without, and 5 things you'd be happy to throw away. Perhaps you might even go home and do it! At Fiona's
- 31st January China. A vast and varied country, home to over a billion people. What do we know of her history, geography, inventions and intentions towards the rest of the world today. At Marion's
- 7th February France. Tonight is part of a national NWR week when groups all over the UK will be exploring France. There is a quiz on France supplied by H.O., so bring along any handy reference books. It is also a food night, so tasty French dishes (and the odd bottle of France's famous products) should be brought along too. At Sue's.
N.B. Please confirm the venue with Alison before setting out.
- 14th February Romance. In film, fiction, poetry, or perhaps your own life. Is Valentines day special to you, and why is it the day for lovers?
At Fiona's
- 21st February Judaism. Its history, customs and beliefs. At Jackie's
- 28th February Paper. From papyrus to modern glossy mags. What is the history of paper through various civilisations, and how do we make and consume so much today. At Helen's
- 7th March Save the Planet! What can we do to alleviate environmental problems. As an individual do you think you have a responsibility too, and just what exactly are you prepared to do without? At Mary's
- 14th March Turkey An important bridge between the Christian West and the Muslim East. What is the ancient and modern background to this amazing place, that may soon be one of our partners in the European Union. At Moira's
- 21st March Myths and Legends. Wherever human beings have been there are stories told that helped our ancestors understand the world they found themselves in. What myths and legends do you know about, and do these stories still have importance today. At Jill's
- Continued Overleaf*
- 28th March Count your Blessings. It's very easy to be a grumpy old woman (as we found last session), but are we as good at being grateful for what we have. An evening to celebrate the good things in our lives.

At Su's

Easter Break

- 18th April Aviation. Time to let our imagination soar with the history and stories of flight. It has opened up the modern world, but at what cost? How has civil and military aviation changed the world. At Fiona's
- 25th April Disease. It has shaped (and ended) human lives as they have evolved along with us. There are some horribly gory ones out there, and we do our best to avoid them, treat them and eradicate them. Sometimes they fight back! At Moira's
- 2nd May Michael. Tell us about an interesting person (not royalty) who had/has this name. At Helen's
- 9th May Famous Gardens. In Britain or abroad there are many famous and beautiful gardens. Tell us about one you like the look of (even if you haven't seen it in the flesh). At Su's
- 16th May Author's night. Read a book by Marian Keyes, and tell us what you thought. At Marian's
- 23rd May Toxic and Dangerous Dumps. We all do our bit to contribute to them, but no-one wants one on their doorstep. What do we do with the undesirable products of society? At Mary's
- 30th May Newspaper Cuttings. Spark some discussion by bringing along one or two that have caught your imagination or fired you up recently. At Jackie's
- 6th June Sausages. Must be something we can do with this topic, so I leave it to your imagination. Bring along some samples (cooked or uncooked) to try, and perhaps tell us about the region it came from. At Val's
- 13th June Ancient crafts. They are remembered in many surnames (Baxter, Cooper and Fletcher to name but a few), and are still flourishing today. What do you know of them? At Jill's
- 20th June A Garden Walk. Suggestions for a suitable garden to visit will be welcomed! This could be an afternoon event if that is preferred.
- 27th June Planning Meeting. Thinking caps on once again. Ideas needed for the Autumn Programme and for fortnightly Summer walks. At Alison's

FALKIRK AND DISTRICT NWR: JULY – DECEMBER 2007

SUMMER WALKS

There are three summer walks scheduled this year. As usual the meeting time will be 7pm to ensure we are tucked up in a cosy pub before dark. So that we know whom to wait for, could you please ring Alison (631363 or 07751 300 218) to let me know if you are coming.

18th July: A 2.5-mile walk along the Allan Water to Stevenson's cave (inspiration for "Treasure Island") and returning along the far bank. Meeting in the Fountain Road Public Car Park (Fountain Rd is the 4th on the left as you drive through Bridge of Allan on the A9 from Stirling – if you cross the Water you have gone way too far!).

1st August: Bo' ness Waterfront stroll for as far as we feel like. Meeting in the Steam Railway car park.

15th August: Linlithgow Loch. Around the Loch (approx.2.5miles) on good paths – insect repellent essential! Meeting in the car park at the Water Yett off Linlithgow High St.

AUTUMN/WINTER PROGRAMME

22.8.07 Australian Night: No cork hats please! An evening of Australian wine, food, culture, history etc. Please bring along something to eat (Alison will be bringing Pavlova) or drink. At Fiona's

29.8.07 Tribes, Clans and Gangs: Who affiliates themselves to these? Is it by birth, choice or circumstance. There are traditional tribal units and modern gangs. What makes them a group? At Marion's

5.9.07 War in Art and Literature: The poignancy of war has left us with a bittersweet legacy. What has particularly moved you. At Val's

12.9.07 String: Untangle the story of this most useful commodity. Or be brave and explain String Theory to us. The choice is yours. At Helen's

19.9.07 Health and Safety Gone Mad: Has the culture of safety gone mad? Are we stifling creativity and our adventurous spirit? At Gillian's

26.9.07 Turner: The artist, his life and paintings. Which one particularly speaks to you? At Val's

3.10.07 National Parks: Many exist both here and abroad. What was the impetus that got them started? Do they have a useful function? Which one do you particularly love? At Moira's

Continued Overleaf

10.10.07 Slavery: An evil from ancient times to modern day. What forms has and does it take, and what can we do to try to eradicate it? At Su's

- 24.10.07 The ex USSR: Many small countries have come to our attention since the USSR imploded, and some we still haven't heard of. What do we know of them?
At Helen's
- 31.10.07 Voodoo, Witchdoctors and Shaman: Drink isn't the only thing that's a bit rum in the Caribbean. Explore the traditions of Black Magic and its origins.
At Gillian's
- 7.11.07 Acts of Union: The idea of union is involved in many things: the UK, USA, USSR, UAE, Trade Unions, marriages, defence pacts etc. A discussion of the merits and demerits of union. What would the world be like without it?
At Alison's
- 14.11.07 THE TELEPHONE TREASURE TRAIL YOUR GROUP NEEDS YOU!!!! Please come. Starts 8pm sharp when phone lines open.
At Fiona's
- 21.11.07 Courage: Acts of courage can involve both grand gestures and small, everyday things that go unnoticed by the world. Some examples please.
At Jill's
- 28.11.07 Women in Power: There have been, and are, more than you might think. Some compete equally with men, whilst others wield power in more subtle ways.
At Marion's
- 5.12.07 Book night: "The Time Traveller's Wife" by Audrey Niffenegger
At Fiona's
- 12.12.07 Theatre Trip: The King's Theatre, Glasgow, is doing "Sleeping Beauty" this year.  Please think ahead for this, as you will have to pay for the ticket if you have said you will come.**
- 19.12.07 Planning Meeting: A little work writing down all those ideas, then a light-hearted Xmas Quiz and some heavier Xmas food and mulled wine. Sounds great! Remember, the programme is only as good as we make it.
At Alison's

NWR Falkirk Winter/Spring Programme 2007

- 10th January Mountains. They feature in our landscapes, literary and scientific worlds, and in our imaginations. Tell us about some aspect of them that appeals to you, or about one mountain in particular. At Alison's
- 17th January Charles Rennie Mackintosh. Exploring aspects of this famous designer's life and works. At Val's
- 24th January 5 things you can't do without, and 5 things you'd be happy to throw away. Perhaps you might even go home and do it! At Fiona's
- 31st January China. A vast and varied country, home to over a billion people. What do we know of her history, geography, inventions and intentions towards the rest of the world today. At Marion's
- 7th February France. Tonight is part of a national NWR week when groups all over the UK will be exploring France. There is a quiz on France supplied by H.O., so bring along any handy reference books. It is also a food night, so tasty French dishes (and the odd bottle of France's famous products) should be brought along too. At Sue's.
N.B. Please confirm the venue with Alison before setting out.
- 14th February Romance. In film, fiction, poetry, or perhaps your own life. Is Valentines day special to you, and why is it the day for lovers?
At Fiona's
- 21st February Judaism. Its history, customs and beliefs. At Jackie's
- 28th February Paper. From papyrus to modern glossy mags. What is the history of paper through various civilisations, and how do we make and consume so much today. At Helen's
- 7th March Save the Planet! What can we do to alleviate environmental problems. As an individual do you think you have a responsibility too, and just what exactly are you prepared to do without? At Mary's
- 14th March Turkey An important bridge between the Christian West and the Muslim East. What is the ancient and modern background to this amazing place, that may soon be one of our partners in the European Union. At Moira's
- 21st March Myths and Legends. Wherever human beings have been there are stories told that helped our ancestors understand the world they found themselves in. What myths and legends do you know about, and do these stories still have importance today. At Jill's
- Continued Overleaf*
- 28th March Count your Blessings. It's very easy to be a grumpy old woman (as we found last session), but are we as good at being grateful for what we have. An evening to celebrate the good things in our lives.

At Su's

Easter Break

- 18th April Aviation. Time to let our imagination soar with the history and stories of flight. It has opened up the modern world, but at what cost? How has civil and military aviation changed the world. At Fiona's
- 25th April Disease. It has shaped (and ended) human lives as they have evolved along with us. There are some horribly gory ones out there, and we do our best to avoid them, treat them and eradicate them. Sometimes they fight back! At Moira's
- 2nd May Michael. Tell us about an interesting person (not royalty) who had/has this name. At Helen's
- 9th May Famous Gardens. In Britain or abroad there are many famous and beautiful gardens. Tell us about one you like the look of (even if you haven't seen it in the flesh). At Su's
- 16th May Author's night. Read a book by Marian Keyes, and tell us what you thought. At Marian's
- 23rd May Toxic and Dangerous Dumps. We all do our bit to contribute to them, but no-one wants one on their doorstep. What do we do with the undesirable products of society? At Mary's
- 30th May Newspaper Cuttings. Spark some discussion by bringing along one or two that have caught your imagination or fired you up recently. At Jackie's
- 6th June Sausages. Must be something we can do with this topic, so I leave it to your imagination. Bring along some samples (cooked or uncooked) to try, and perhaps tell us about the region it came from. At Val's
- 13th June Ancient crafts. They are remembered in many surnames (Baxter, Cooper and Fletcher to name but a few), and are still flourishing today. What do you know of them? At Jill's
- 20th June A Garden Walk. Suggestions for a suitable garden to visit will be welcomed! This could be an afternoon event if that is preferred.
- 27th June Planning Meeting. Thinking caps on once again. Ideas needed for the Autumn Programme and for fortnightly Summer walks. At Alison's

FALKIRK AND DISTRICT NWR: JULY – DECEMBER 2007

SUMMER WALKS

There are three summer walks scheduled this year. As usual the meeting time will be 7pm to ensure we are tucked up in a cosy pub before dark. So that we know whom to wait for, could you please ring Alison (631363 or 07751 300 218) to let me know if you are coming.

18th July: A 2.5-mile walk along the Allan Water to Stevenson's cave (inspiration for "Treasure Island") and returning along the far bank. Meeting in the Fountain Road Public Car Park (Fountain Rd is the 4th on the left as you drive through Bridge of Allan on the A9 from Stirling – if you cross the Water you have gone way too far!).

1st August: Bo' ness Waterfront stroll for as far as we feel like. Meeting in the Steam Railway car park.

15th August: Linlithgow Loch. Around the Loch (approx.2.5miles) on good paths – insect repellent essential! Meeting in the car park at the Water Yett off Linlithgow High St.

AUTUMN/WINTER PROGRAMME

22.8.07 Australian Night: No cork hats please! An evening of Australian wine, food, culture, history etc. Please bring along something to eat (Alison will be bringing Pavlova) or drink. At Fiona's

29.8.07 Tribes, Clans and Gangs: Who affiliates themselves to these? Is it by birth, choice or circumstance. There are traditional tribal units and modern gangs. What makes them a group? At Marion's

5.9.07 War in Art and Literature: The poignancy of war has left us with a bittersweet legacy. What has particularly moved you. At Val's

12.9.07 String: Untangle the story of this most useful commodity. Or be brave and explain String Theory to us. The choice is yours. At Helen's

19.9.07 Health and Safety Gone Mad: Has the culture of safety gone mad? Are we stifling creativity and our adventurous spirit? At Gillian's

26.9.07 Turner: The artist, his life and paintings. Which one particularly speaks to you? At Val's

3.10.07 National Parks: Many exist both here and abroad. What was the impetus that got them started? Do they have a useful function? Which one do you particularly love? At Moira's

Continued Overleaf

10.10.07 Slavery: An evil from ancient times to modern day. What forms has and does it take, and what can we do to try to eradicate it? At Su's

- 24.10.07 The ex USSR: Many small countries have come to our attention since the USSR imploded, and some we still haven't heard of. What do we know of them?
At Helen's
- 31.10.07 Voodoo, Witchdoctors and Shaman: Drink isn't the only thing that's a bit rum in the Caribbean. Explore the traditions of Black Magic and its origins.
At Gillian's
- 7.11.07 Acts of Union: The idea of union is involved in many things: the UK, USA, USSR, UAE, Trade Unions, marriages, defence pacts etc. A discussion of the merits and demerits of union. What would the world be like without it?
At Alison's
- 14.11.07 THE TELEPHONE TREASURE TRAIL YOUR GROUP NEEDS YOU!!!! Please come. Starts 8pm sharp when phone lines open.
At Fiona's
- 21.11.07 Courage: Acts of courage can involve both grand gestures and small, everyday things that go unnoticed by the world. Some examples please.
At Jill's
- 28.11.07 Women in Power: There have been, and are, more than you might think. Some compete equally with men, whilst others wield power in more subtle ways.
At Marion's
- 5.12.07 Book night: "The Time Traveller's Wife" by Audrey Niffenegger
At Fiona's
- 12.12.07 Theatre Trip: The King's Theatre, Glasgow, is doing "Sleeping Beauty" this year.  Please think ahead for this, as you will have to pay for the ticket if you have said you will come.**
- 19.12.07 Planning Meeting: A little work writing down all those ideas, then a light-hearted Xmas Quiz and some heavier Xmas food and mulled wine. Sounds great! Remember, the programme is only as good as we make it.
At Alison's